Les Bosquets des Papes has been a working vineyard in Chateauneuf du Pape since 1860. Founded by the Boiron family, the domaine has been owned by the same family for 6 generations. For a period of time, the estate produced and sold their wine under the name of Clos Chantemerle. That practice began in 1936. The name was changed to Les Bosquets des Papes in 1966.

The Southern Rhone Valley vineyards of Bosquet des Papes are like many estates, spread out over the appellation. In all, their vines are located in forty separate plots in Chateauneuf du Pape. They own old vines, While the average age of their vines is close to 50 years. The current generation, Nicolas Boiron, took control of the domaine in 1995.

CHÂTEAUNEUF DU PAPE 'A GLOIRE DE MON GRAND-PÈRE'

98% Grenache, 2% Cinsault and Clairette

Soil: Clay

The vines range from 60-70 years old and are located in a single parcel in the lieu dit Gardioles. Approximately 6,000 to 8,000 bottles are produced annually.

The grapes are 50% destemmed and vinified in concrete tank for 35 days. The wine is then aged in foudres and demi-muids for 12 to 18 months before bottling.

The red and white grapes are entirely picked by hand and sorted for the first time on the stump where the harvester has two buckets. A second sorting of grapes is carried out on the platform of the tractor which will bring them to the cellar. A classic winemaking process follows; however, nothing is left to chance: temperatures are controlled, the fermentation musts are pumped up to give enough air to the yeasts, the marc is drawn to extract all the material. available... pressing in a pneumatic press... nothing more traditional but you just have to know how to do it at the right time.
